AN EXPERIENCE INSPIRED BY MUSIC

Aria Hotel Prague is superbly located in the heart of historic Prague, one of the world's leading musical destinations with its rich cultural heritage. Guests enjoy being conveniently located just steps from the Charles Bridge and a short walk to the magical Prague Castle, spectacular Royal Gardens, and picturesque panoramas of the city's most architecturally distinctive district. Aria Hotel Prague offers luxurious accommodations and uncompromised service to its guests, paired with a unique musical spirit. Each of the 51 modern rooms and suites is dedicated to a distinctive musical artist or composer. Aria Hotel Prague resonates with the sounds of Jazz, Opera, Classical and Contemporary music. Aria's design incorporates notes of past and present to create an exquisite guest experience.

EXPERIENCE

Our luxury accommodations feature 29 Deluxe rooms, 16 Junior Suites and 6 Signature Luxury Suites, all situated within four floors. Each floor is devoted to either Contemporary, Classical, Opera or Jazz music, and each room has a garden, street or atrium view. The rooms' interiors were created by Italian designers Rocco Magnoli and Lorenzo Carmellini, whose work can also be viewed in Versace stores and hotels across the globe. All rooms are non-smoking, air-conditioned and equipped with custom-made furniture for a premiere guest experience. Guest room features include a fully stocked minibar, laptop-size safe, and writing desk. Ironing boards, irons and baby cots are also available upon request.

FAMOUS GUESTS

The Aria Hotel Prague guestbook names range from Harvey Keitel, Andy Garcia, Morgan Freeman and the James Bond crew (Movie Director Mr. Campbell and crew), to singers Seal, Duran Duran, Eminem's Manager and sports stars including Aja Vrzanova and Rubens Barichello.

Former U.S. president Bill Clinton stayed at the Aria Hotel Prague in May 2012 when he participated in the summit devoted to gas and energy security.

Former Secretary of State Madeleine Albright stayed at the Aria Hotel Prague in 2009 for the 10th Anniversary of Czech Republic NATO affiliation.
