

The Library Hotel is the ultimate book lover's paradise! Home to over 6,000 books, each of the ten guestroom floors is dedicated to one of the ten major classifications of knowledge of the Dewey Decimal System and every guestroom features its own library of books and artwork on a unique subject. Recently recognized as one of the Top 25 Hotels in the USA by the TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Awards 2016 and one of the Top 10 Best Hotels in New York City in the Condé Nast Traveler's Reader Choice Awards 2016, the Library Hotel and its attentive staff provide a thought provoking experience to sophisticated travelers with a passion for culture and individual expression. Guests are welcome to unwind from their urban adventures in the 2nd Floor guest lounge, the Reading Room, or the gorgeous rooftop terrace, the Writer's Den and Poetry Garden, which transform into a very popular bar in the evenings called Bookmarks Lounge.

EXPERIENCE

The 60 guest rooms feature rich wood furnishings and fabrics in a sleek, contemporary design, plus a library of inspiring books to captivate your imagination. Guests can choose from four room types: Petite Room with one Full Bed, Deluxe Room with one Queen Bed, Deluxe Room with one King Bed, or Junior Suite with one King Bed and pullout Sofa Bed. The hotel also features two one-of-a-kind rooms: the Love Room with one King Bed and a private terrace, and the Mythology Room with one King Bed on our highest floor. Both rooms feature city views of Madison Avenue and the iconic New York Public Library.
